

CHAPTER THIRTY-FIVE

Those Who Have Served

Loyalty and devotion to the American flag and to the great Republic represented by the historic "stars and bars" have always marked the lives of those in Wasatch County. In any time of national emergency they have responded to their duty, whether at home or on the battlefronts of the world. Through two world wars, a conflict in Korea and then again late in 1961 when another crisis prompted leaders of the country to active troops, the men of Wasatch County have stood ready to answer their calls to duty.

On the following pages are presented, in alphabetical order, the names of those who have served. Preceding each list of names is a grouping of those who made the supreme sacrifice in the name of freedom.
